The President on the Currency Question.

By Telegraph to the News.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—The President arrived here, from Lake Forest, this morning. He was met by a Committee from the Board of Trade, and escorted to the Chamber of Commerce, where he was welcomed and enthusiastically received. He said he should speak to this large body of business men of the United States, who represented one of the greatest interests on the continent, upon only one point of the finance question. He proceeded to point out the dangers of legislative meddling with the money of the country, now that we are on a basis of honest money. The only danger is that our Congress will disturb the values, shake the confidence of the people in the stability of the currency of the country, and delay the already dawning era of prosperity. Confidence was half the battle in business and finance. He believed Secretary Sherman had dealt fairly, honestly and openly with the business men of the country, and however the question of resumption might have been discussed, and however we may have differed as to the expediency, it is now a thing of the past, and we are benefited by its final disposition. The speaker was applauded.

NO FEVER AT DANVILLE.

Cause of the Excitement—Explanation of Its Reason.

By Telegraph to the News.

DANVILLE, VA., Sept. 12.

There is no yellow fever here. A family of refugees from New Orleans landed here yesterday, and caused some excitement among the negroes and the large number of country people who were in town.

The party consisted of a man, Charles Johnston by name, his wife and two little girls, the eldest about five and the youngest about three years of age.

The particulars of the case, as learned from them, are substantially these: They lived in New Orleans, and soon after the yellow fever broke out in that city they fled for safety, leaving everything behind them. The city was quarantined and they found it impossible to escape only on foot, and, having two little children to care for, could take no baggage with them. They reached Atlanta, Ga., by walking a good portion of the distance, where they were taken with the fever, it having been contracted before leaving New Orleans. The largest of the two children took it first, and in rapid succession the whole family fell victims to the terrible plague. For reasons better imagined than described, as there was no other case of fever in that city, they told no one of their condition, and Mrs. Johnston, having had experience in the treatment of the yellow fever, took the matter in hand, doctored and cured her family and herself.

As soon as they were able to travel they started again for Richmond, at which place Mr. and Mrs. Johnston lived several years ago, and where she still has friends and relations residing, she having been raised there. They got transportation to Charlotte, where funds enough were furnished them to reach this point. When they arrived here, having neither money nor tickets to carry them further, they were put off the train, the conductor not being able to give them free passage to Richmond without orders to that effect from headquarters, and not, as reported, from any fear of danger from them in their present condition.

As soon as the fact that they needed assistance became known to our citizens, they were furnished with something to eat and otherwise cared for. A subscription was taken up for their benefit, and tickets bought for them to Richmond, for which place they left last night.

The Bycicle in England.

New York Tribune.

One of the present peculiarities of the London streets most astonishing to the traveling American is the constant appearance of the bycicle. About 7 o'clock in the evening, while still broad daylight, one can hardly drive through a popular thoroughfare without meeting a bycicle every few rods. Its driver guides it along the roadway as rapidly and unconcernedly as if it were a horse of wondrous speed and living instinct, and accidents rarely happen. Many young business men use it instead of the omnibus between home and office, and often take after-dinner rides many miles into the country and back in a couple of hours. Often they carry knapsacks strapped on the machine behind them. Those most devoted to the exercise wear a special bycicle dress—a short, double-breasted sack coat, with knee breeches and long hose in dark colors, and laced gaiters. The roughness and unevenness of the ordinary pavement do not seem to interfere at all with the rapid progress of the machine, which is thus, in one city at least, being made of practical use. Of so much use, indeed, that the question of taxing it is to come up, it is reported, before Parliament next session. The bycicle clubs will probably make a stout protest against the infliction of "rates" upon their equipage.

STORM ON THE COAST.

Damage at New Berne—The High Sea at Beaufort—Destruction at Wilmington.

Condensed from Nutshell and Star.

Early Thursday morning a severe gale broke over New Berne, and continued in violence until near midnight, causing considerable damage. The storm was most severe on Neuse river, and during the morning the bosom of this turbid stream presented a grand and imposing sight, as the billows "ran mountains high," dashing against East Front street stone wall with such fury as to cause the spray to reach nearly to the tops of trees bordering the street. About noon a small section of this wall, which had not been reached by Mr. Stilly's hands, who were filling in the wall with dirt, and which was consequently without support, succumbed to the terrible lashing of the angry waves and tumbled in. Soon the entire structure, over 1,000 feet in length, except that portion which had been completely filled in, and a few yards, here and there, probably protected by masses of heavy slabs piled on top of these seetions, was washed down and the foaming waters dashed in.

The storm was even more severe near Beaufort than at New Berne. The marshes and other points at all times above the water were completely inundated. At Morehead city the railroad embankment was seriously threatened at one time, and it was feared it would be washed away during the night, and Capt. Roberson, with his train hands, were placed on guard. We learned at an early hour this morning, from Capt. Roberson, who came up on a freight train, that all was safe at Morehead.

Several trees were uprooted and fences prostrated in various sections of Wilmington, but the only damage of special importance was the falling of the wall of a new brick building on the west side of Front, between Market and Princess streets, which was being erected for Mr. Donald McRae. The accident is supposed to have been caused mainly by the frequent heavy rains that have prevailed recently, preventing the mortar from drying, together with the lack of proper support, which would have been given it by the iron front but for the delay in receiving it and getting it into position. Fortunately no one was hurt, those who had been at work on the building having taken refuge in the porch of the Western Union Telegraph office from the storm of wind and rain. It was the wall on the south side of the building that fell, and the damage will probably not exceed five or six hundred dollars.

The Cabarrus County S. S. Convention.

Correspondence of the News.

The Sabbath Schools of Cabarrus county, embracing all denominations, met in convention in the Methodist Church in Concord, on the 11th inst., at 10 o'clock, a. m. A large crowd was present. Eighteen Sabbath Schools were represented by delegates elected. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. J. S. Heilig. Rev. L. McKinnon was called to the chair, and C. G. Montgomery elected Secretary, and D. R. Hoover, Treasurer.

Written reports, statistical and financial, from each Sunday School, were read and filed. The Sunday School interests were discussed by Rev. Dr. Davis, of Mt. Pleasant. Rev. J. J. Renn, of Salisbury, Rev. Dr. Alford, of Mt. Pleasant, Rev. Wm. Rawlings and Mr. Wbary, of Cabarrus county, Rev. H. P. Cole, of Concord, and Prof. O. W. Carr, of Trinity College.

At night the session was held in the Presbyterian Church, and the large audience present highly entertained and instructed by Prof. O. W. Carr, of Trinity College, with his blackboard and magnetic illustrations. The choir, composed of representatives from the Methodist, Presbyterian and Lutheran choirs in town, rendered some very fine music during the day and night. Some capital speeches were made during the day, upon the best modes of conducting Sunday-schools, how to extend the work, etc. The Convention was very interesting, and we trust will be productive of much good.

Rev. L. McKinnon was elected permanent President, C. G. Montgomery Secretary, and W. R. Hoover Treasurer. The following constitute the Executive Committee: Dr. W. H. Lilly, D. F. Cannon, T. C. Stricker, H. McNamar, S. W. White and W. R. Odell.

The Convention adjourned at 9 p. m., to meet in Concord on the first Wednesday in September, 1879. It was pleasing to observe the perfect harmony that prevailed throughout the entire proceedings.

All denominations were so "mixed up" that no one could tell to what church another belonged. All were one in a desire to increase the Sunday-school interest and make it productive of more fruitful results.

The Oldest Man in the World.

From the London Telegraph, Aug. 23,

At last the oldest inhabitant has turned up. There is no doubt about the fairness of his claim to this title, and no chance that a rival will soon appear, for this venerable person's age exceeds by half a century even that of old Parr, who is perfectly well known to have beaten every other patriarch since the antediluvian days. It is, perhaps, a drawback that the newly-discovered centenarian, or rather duocentenarian, is an American. One is inclined to grudge that pushing and somewhat "stuck-up" continent the possession of all the biggest, oddest, and oldest, as well as newest things. We must bow to antiquity in the person of the very old fellow who has been described by the correspondent of a German paper. He resides in the Republic of Columbia—a State whose chief products seem to be tobacco, straw hats, monks, volcanoes, and earthquakes—chiefly the last—and he is a half-caste, Miguel Solis by name. At a recent conference of physicians in Bogota, Dr. Luis Hernandes told how he had interviewed the patriarch. Solis, it appears, is modest enough to claim an age of no more than 180 years, but his neighbors, all of whom, of course, have known him from infancy, repudiate that he is such a youngster, and loudly assert that he has overpassed his second century. The evidence on this point, it must in candor be admitted, is not quite conclusive. The oldest inhabitants told Dr. Hernandes that when they were boys Solis had the reputation of being more than a century old, and confirmation of this is said to be afforded by the fact that a signature which Solis recognizes as his own appears among the list of contributors to the cost of erecting the Convent of San Sebastian in 1712, when he was a sprightly infant of 50 or thereabout. But, unfortunately, as no witness of this interesting signature can be found in the natural course of things, the attestation turns upon old Solis' good faith or his memory, and without being uncharitable, we may fear that one or the other may be defective. For the rest, the aged curiosity is interesting enough. Dr. Hernandes found him in good health and at work in his garden. "His skin resembles parchment, and his long snow white hair wound about his head in turban fashion. His eyes gleamed so fixedly as to make his visitor feel uncomfortable when looked at." He attributed the length of his life to regular and moderate diet. He eat only one meal a day, but that consists of "stong and hearty food," to which he devotes himself assiduously for more than half an hour at a stretch, having discovered that no man can eat more in half an hour than he can digest in 24 hours. But this is not all, for he fasts two whole days every month, and then refreshes himself by copious draughts of cold water, which is probably more stimulating diet in those regions than it is in Europe. Finally, he always lets his food get cold before partaking of it, and he considers that this precation has had a great deal to do with the prolongation of his life. On the whole, however, one would like to know more about this parchment-skinned and weird-looking hermit of this Colombian wild before crediting the statement that he came into the world just as Cromwell was leaving it and that he was an octogenarian at the time of Culloden. The old fellow may be a practical joker, and may owe his highly-effective "make-up" to the monks of San Sebastian, who would be sure to enter into the fun of the thing.

We have private and exclusive information as to the plan by which the Radical managers still hope to gain control of the next House. They expect to gain several districts in Delaware. This is confidential, but reliable.—Washington Post.

A recent advertisement contains the following: "If the gentleman who keeps the shoe shop with the red head will return the umbrella of a young lady with whalebone rips and an iron handle to the slate-roofed grocer's shop, he will hear of some to his advantage, as the same is the gift of a deceased mother, now no more, the name engraved on it."

There are a great many men in this world who imagine that they are born with genius, and lie down on the sofa and wait for an inspiration until some other fellow, who thought himself a dunce, rises by hard labor to a competency, buys the sofa, and leads the waiting genius out by the ear. This is not a joke; it is a fact.—Cincinnati Breakfast Table.

"Your Honor," said one of the new police yesterday, while testifying in the case of a man charged with disturbance of the peace, "the defendant was making a great deal of noise, and was swearing at me." "Did he speak English?" asked the defendant's counsel. "No, sir, he spoke Italian." "Then how did you know he was swearing at you?" "Why, I could tell it by the twinkles in his face," replied the officer.—San Francisco Call.

The Radicals are getting possession of the next House a good deal as the Indian got religion. Some of the brethren asked him how he felt, and he responded, "I feel as pious as hell." Elections has occurred in three States. In Oregon the Democrats have gained the State, a United States Senator and a Congressman. In Vermont—rock-ribbed Vermont—the Radicals have lost what they never lost before—a Congressman, while in Maine, which has been solidly Radical for twenty-three years, they have lost two Congresmen, one of whom has been gained by the Democrats and the other by the Democrats and Greenbackers combined. The promised Radical revolution seems to revolute the wrong way. Can't somebody stop her?—Washington Post.

Whose features are livid with anger;
He has torn all his coats
And lost thousands of votes—

Horrors of The Plague in Memphis.

Washington Star, 12th.

Drs. Ramsay and Pease and Mrs. Wallis, who accompanied the party of physicians and nurses who left this city a few evenings since for Memphis, returned to this city last night, having been sent back by the Howard Association of Memphis for the reason that they had never had the yellow fever. A representative of the Star failed to find Mrs Wallis at her residence, 1009 E street, to-day, and therefore cannot give her impressions of what she saw at Memphis. The party arrived at Memphis Friday evening, and left there to return Sunday morning last.

DR. T. P. PEASE STATES

that during his brief visit there he improved the time to the best of his ability in looking at the situation of things and attending to the sick. Last Saturday he visited over one hundred cases of yellow fever and prescribed for them. He states that the streets are deserted, business closed, the banks only keeping open one hour each day. Negroes straggle in from the surrounding country and plunder houses; the stench from the adjacent bayous, into which the sewers empty, and from the dead bodies of victims of the fever, pervades every place you go, and is intolerable. There are upwards of

FOUR THOUSAND CASES

now in that city, and not half of the sufferers receive proper attention. The Howard Association is doing everything it can, but they have neither physicians nor nurses enough to attend the sick. The sidewalks are scattered with coffins and rough pine boxes, and the dead carts are driven around and constantly gathering up corpses which have been thrust out of houses to be buried. They are carted off by all sorts of vehicles and

BURIED IN DITCHES.

Dead bodies are frequently found in houses which have never been reported and sometimes the stench is terrible when they have been laying in a state of decomposition. On the outskirts of the city he saw two bodies of colored men swollen by the heat and gasses and partially eaten by the rats, unburied. The poorer classes appear to be callous to all decency; care for no one but themselves, and are even brutal to their own dying relatives and friends. He heard of no action being taken by the municipal authorities to extend relief or to protect life or property. The native physicians are overworked and broken down, and

A REIGN OF TERROR

and demoralization exists. Two of the nurses who went away from this city were retained at the Howard Association headquarters and the others were sent into private families where the fever was raging. Provisions are scarce and high priced and

MANY PEOPLE ARE STARVING.

Everybody seems to be on the make and no one works without the highest pay they can get. The consequence is that the poorer classes, who are not able to pay for physicians or nurses, suffer and die without their aid.

Dr. Pease states that he proposes to return to Memphis on his own responsibility, and if possible take some nurses with him, without leave of the Howard Association and will do all he can. He goes to New York to-night and will return to-morrow and then leave immediately for Memphis.

Congressional Canvass in the West.

Correspondence of the News.

MORGANTON, N. C., Sept. 12.

Gen. R. B. Vance opened the canvass here on yesterday to a large crowd, and the effort was one of marked ability and zeal, and at times replete with pathos and eloquence. He devoted most of his time to a discussion of the currency question, which he discussed in a way to make a profound impression upon the crowd. He showed the effect of class legislation, and the peculiar and ruinous effects of the contraction of the currency. Gen. Vance showed, from official sources, the record of the Democratic party on this vital question; that it was the only safety now to defeat the combinations of the money-power and the monopolist.

He gave an epitome of the acts and doings of the recent session of Congress, which clearly evinced the fidelity with which he had served the people; and the frequent applause of the crowd was a manifestation of their appreciation of this excellent speech. Gen. Vance is thoroughly informed on the currency question, and gave many interesting facts and figures not heretofore known to the people. The Democrats, Greenbackers and Republicans all speak in high terms of this speech, and say it was the best effort of his life. Gen. Vance has no opposition, but he intends to make a thorough canvass.

He goes to Lenoir on Friday, and next Monday he will address the people of McDowell in Marion.

The Superior Court is in session. Quite a large attendance of the bar. Judge Gudger gives reasonable satisfaction. The case of the State vs. Secrist, for murder, was moved to McDowell for trial. The case excites considerable interest. A vast number of witnesses are in attendance, many of them from Union county.

BURKE.

Washington Notes.

Special Dispatch to Baltimore Sun.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Gen. Longstreet has been appointed a special internal revenue agent, and assigned to duty in Georgia and Florida. It is understood that this appointment has been made through the exertion of powerful influence in behalf of Gen. Longstreet, whose circumstances are represented as very needy, so much so, indeed, that this subordinate and not very desirable appointment was welcome. After Gen. Longstreet's retirement from the Federal office in New Orleans to which General Grant appointed him, he remained in the city for some time without securing employment, and then returned to Georgia.

A DESPERATE PLOT.

Mr. Gould yesterday received a dispatch from Mr. Clark, of the Union Pacific railroad, at Omaha, notifying him of information, believed to be reliable, that a plot has been formed by the robbers of the plains to rifle the Union Pacific mail and express cars. The robbers are said to be numerous enough and desperate enough to defy the local authorities. Mr. Clark stated in his dispatch that the military commander at Omaha would afford protection to the trains, but said the law forbids, and he asked Mr. Gould to call upon the President and ask him to issue the necessary orders. Mr. Gould took the next train for Washington.

After his unsuccessful search for the officials above mentioned he went to the Treasury Department, where he had an interview with Secretary Sherman. The Secretary thought the military could be lawfully employed for the protection of the mails. Mr. Gould immediately telegraphed to Mr. Clark to communicate at once with Secretary McCrary, who is in Iowa, and obtain the necessary power. Gen. Sherman is also absent from Washington, or Mr. Gould would have laid the case before him.

THE REPUBLICANS DISCOMFITED.

The habitues of the Republican Campaign Committee's rooms have no enthusiasm left after the Maine election, but it has been determined to keep up the fight in a mechanical kind of way, and the distribution of documents will go on as usual. Few here have any idea now of a Republican success in Pennsylvania. In case the Republicans lose the Legislature, there is an impression that expression that ex-Gov. Curtin will be a candidate for United States Senator. Gov. Curtin is doing active campaign work for the democrats, speaking from the same stand with Senator Wallace and Mr. Dill, the Democratic candidate for Governor.

WRANGLING RADICALS.

Badger the Bulldozer—Isaac the Irritator—Political Personalities—Social Scurrilities.

The anti-Turner party of Republicans assembled in the court house last evening. The greater part of those present were negroes. Henry Clay Jones, African, presided. A series of resolutions, strongly condemnatory of the conduct of the members of the Radical District Executive Committee in endorsing Turner, were read.

R. C. Badger and Ike Young graced the occasion. The former rose and addressed the audience, as one of the offenders. He said he had voted under instructions. He further stated that despite all hard words he could not be driven from the party, that he would still be the same d—d Republican as ever. He said he thought Turner a crazy fool, and the last man he ever thought the conformation of politics would induce him to vote for. He only did it to pulverize the damnable Democratic party.

As soon as he subsided, Magnin, one of the anti-Turner men, arose. He went for Ike Young as a disorganizer. He said Jo Turner was too bad a pill for him to swallow. If he went to Congress he would, in time of need, vote with the Democrats. As between Turner and Davis he would vote for the latter every time. He favored a call for a convention to make a regular nomination.

Col. Young then proceeded to make a response, and reciprocated the personalities. He denounced Magnin, when the latter jumped up and made threatening gestures. The reporters, happy at the prospect of a row, were sadly disappointed, for no blows were passed. Col. Young said if Republicans could vote for Bledsoe they could vote for Turner. He asked his hearers to "forgive old Jo," and thereby practice a christian charity.

The Chairman then spoke, followed by Henry Bynum, a negro preacher, John Caswell and A. W. Shaffer. Tim Lee spoke of the need of calling a convention, and nominating a regular candidate, as he said the Democrats a were advided house. R. C. Badger said if they wished to run him out of the party they could do so.

The resolutions then came up. On motion of Tim Lee they were tabled, and the faithful and otherwise retired in bad order and odor.

Comparison Between Fire Companies.

The Charlotte Observer says:

"The Raleigh News says "the Victor fire company, the best colored organization of the kind, in this or any other State, were practicing with their apparatus last evening. They made a run of 350 yards in one minute, with engine and hose reel."

This comes with bad grace from the News, as only on the 17th of July last, the Victor, of Raleigh, and the Neptune fire company, of this city, were on trial for speed and skill, and the Neptunes won the champion belt and a silver cup which were offered as the prizes in the contest. Capt. Grey J. Toole wears the belt with becoming modesty, because he knows his is the best company in the State.

Besides getting the belt and cup in the contest with the Raleigh company, the Neptunes beat the Wilmington Cape Fear company in December, 1876, and the Charleston (S. C.) company in a contest in Columbia in 1871."

The Victor was not fully manned at Charlotte; the citizens here know well the power of the company and will never fear their ability to always make the best show in a contest. If the Neptunes are so confident of their success at all times, let them pay Raleigh a visit, and see where they will be.

The Colored Folks Festival.

The colored people continued their dime party at Metropolitan Hall, in aid of the yellow fever sufferers, last evening. As before, the attendance was large, and the participants were very jolly. The Oak City Brass Band gave the sweetest music, and the festivities were protracted until a late hour.

The receipts were about $75, making a total of $175, from the two entertainments. The colored people desire to tender their most grateful thanks to the kind people, particularly the white, who gave them such invaluable aid. The chief committee of the Club are Bettie Tucker, Maria High, Martha Bembry, Julia Young, Sally Cardwell, Lucy Patterson, Mary Irwin. Florida Sumner and Ann Eliza Dunston. All are pleased at the good results.

Joke on Beecher.

California Cor, N Y. Times.

You probably saw the story of the row in the palace car. Some wag, observing Mr. Beecher hanging his hat, with some pains, on a peg immediately over his berth, managed to detain him in the smoking-room until all had retired, slipped out and removed the hat to a peg over the berth of an antiquated lady of single proclivities. When Mr. Beecher essayed to retire there was a shriek, and every head was poped out to see what the row was all about, and there stood Mr. Beecher, amazed, while Mrs. Beecher, from the adjoining berth, exclaimed: "Oh, Henry."

It Might Have Been.

When taking a retrospection of our past lives, how often does conscience whisper to broken spirits and wounded hearts the sad, sad words, "It might have been?" Thus it may be with the sufferer who endures the agonies of hemorrhoids, or piles, and heeds not the counsel to try Barham's Infallible Pile Cure, which is warranted to speedily and permanently cure this distressing disease. Dr. Daniel Asbury's recently patented invention for drying fruit, tobacco, lumber, etc., has been thoroughly tested in Danville within the last few days and he writes that it has exceeded his own expectations and has created quite a stir among the tobacco raisers of that region. A whole barn of tobacco was dried by the process in an incredibly short time, turning out the leaf as bright as that cured by the sun. It is believed that Dr Asbury has an invention which will reap him a fortune. Capt. S. B. The South on Trial.

With the solitary exception of Carl Schurz, ("that d—d Dutch tramp," as Ingalls, of Kansas, calls him, who never speaks for less than $250 a night,) Hayes' Civil-Service-Reform Cabinet are on the stump, endeavoring to patch up the breaches in the Radical party and to bolster up the sinking fortunes of that doomed and corrupt organization. When it is remembered with what high-sounding phrases the Administration came into existence,—with what loud and virtuous protestations of the impropriety of Federal officers interfering with politics,—the spectacle thus presented is, to say the least, a shameless one. When the men highest in authority thus violate their promises and pledges and set the precedent of official prostitution, it can hardly be expected that the lesser functionaries will not follow the example.

The Secretary of War, Mr. McCrary, has just delivered a speech at Keokuk, in the State of Iowa. It abounds in declarations that smack so strongly of Grantism, that one must fain "rub his eyes" before he can realize that they are the words of a Cabinet minister of the President, whose Southern policy we have been summoned to extol, and which, we are willing to admit, has been, in the main, patriotic and conciliatory; in other words, that Mr. Hayes, in removing the troops from South Carolina and Louisiana, discharged his sworn constitutional duty. He (McCrary) asserted that the South is on trial and intimated, in various ways, that there would be a vigorous renewal of repressive measures, if that section failed to pass through the ordea in a way to suit the Republican party. The following extract has all of the old Grant-Chandler-Sherman ring about it:

"He was aware that in time of peace the Government could exercise no strictly war powers, and it was a fact some were inclined to admit with regret, and there are many crimes that the United States cannot punish. Ordinarily, the crime of murder was not within the jurisdiction of the Federal courts; but the right of Congress to provide for a fair election of Federal officers, and for the due enforcement of those provisions of the Constitution which guarantee the right of suffrage and civil rights to the freedmen, is beyond dispute."

We beg just here to remark that it is owing to the legislation of a Democratic House of Representatives,—legislation which commanded the support of every North Carolina Representative on the floor of Congress,—that the Government has been shorn of those "war powers in time of peace," which the Secretary regrets have been taken away, and which were so rudely exercised during the reign of Grant, in controlling the ballot-box and overawing free citizens. If the Democratic party had done nothing else to commend it to the confidence and endorsement of all lovers of constitutional liberty, it is sufficient that it forced the enactment of a law to prevent the employment of the army in interference with elections and the local concerns and government of the States. That one act stamped it as the party of Law and of Civil Freedom, as against the aggressions and usurpations of Military Despotism.

The pretence that "the right of suffrage and the civil rights of the freedmen" are in jeopardy is simply a sop to the Northern Cerberus and was intended to rekindle the flames of sectional prejudice against the "solid South." So far as the right of suffrage of the freedmen is concerned, the granting of that right is, to-day, secretly felt by the Northern Radical politicians to have been the greatest of party blunders, in that it has so greatly increased the legislative and Electoral power of the South and its corresponding influence in the control and administration of the government. If it were possible or feasible, the Republican party would to-morrow curtail or limit the elective franchise of the negro, if by so doing they could dwarf the voice of the South in National legislation.

But the utterances of the Secretary of War are mainly significant, as foreshadowing what the policy of the Radical party will be, in the dire event that it shall regain control of Congress. When Rehoboam reigned in Israel and the people besought him to make their yoke less grievous than his father had made it, the cruel and insolent reply was: "My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions." We may take warning from the historical narrative.

Which leads us to say, in a different sense from that intended by Secretary McCrary, that "the South is," indeed, "on trial." In the manly spirit of American freemen, and under the peaceful forms of law and the ballot, our people have risen in their strength and asserted their manhood and their constitutional rights. They are "on trial" as to whether they will cravenly surrender them. They have thrown off the yoke of Radical indignities and oppression. They are "on trial" as to whether they will voluntarily bend their necks for a heavier burden. They have restored the safeguards of true Republican government. They are "on trial" as to whether, by inaction or infidelity, they will assist in restoring the rule of despotic power. We believe that they will be true to their prestige and to their high interests, and that, in the elections that lie before us, they will come up to the full measure of their responsibility.

What say you, Democrats of the Fourth Congressional District,—Democrats of North Carolina? Let us expel the traitors from the camp and march on to duty and to victory!

We animadverted, on yesterday, upon the mean and unmanly insinuation of the New York Times, that the liberality of the North to the fever-scourged and afflicted communities of the South did not seem to have had the effect of moderating the zeal and temper of Southern Democrats. The more we reflect upon the spirit which prompted such an utterance, the more are we impressed by its narrowness and pusillanimity. The reflection which it implies is as much upon the motives which impelled the benefactions of noble-hearted men and women of the North, as it is upon the supposed craven venality of our people, and, in either case, is equally undeserved. We believe that the lavish and liberal offerings which our Northern countrymen have poured upon the altars of a common humanity have been prompted by generous benevolence, and

"The quality of mercy (which) is not strained,"

And we know that the most sorely stricken and bereaved of our own fellow-countrymen would repel the hand which, under cover of relief and sympathy, offered a bribe for the surrender of cherished and conscientious convictions. The feeling which animates the strictures of the New York Times is the low and cowardly impulse of the man who would seek and expect to overcome the chastity of a woman, by an exhibition of spurious sympathy in some hour of abandonment or despair.

There is one phase of this matter which we care not to discuss,—to which we may only barely allude,—for we should despise ourselves if we intruded politics into the sacred domain of heaven-born charity. But the Times bases its contemptible inuendo upon the apparent assumption that all of the Northern contributions have been from men who are hostile to the prevailing political sentiment of the South. Without trespassing upon the proprieties of the occasion and the subject, it is sufficient to say that this is far from being the case.

What is right, and proper, and just, to be said, is simply this: That the people of the South, as well in the spared as in the afflicted communities, have had their hearts touched by the generous exhibitions of Northern fraternity and pity; that, should dire occasion ever unfortunately require it, we will have open hearts and hands for their calamity; that what we may have it in our power to give or to do will be given and done in the spirit of brotherly sympathy and common humanity, (as they have given and done), and not in the spirit of the Radical New York Times, which would offer gold for a surrender of principle, in the halls of mourning and in the very gateways of death!

The Goldsboro Messenger thinks that a liberal bankrupt law, surrounded with sufficient safeguards, for the relief of honest debtors and the advancement of trade generally, is a national necessity, but that each State ought to be at liberty to regulate this matter, and all that Congress should do is to adopt some measure by which a discharge granted an insolvent debtor in any one State, after due opportunity for the creditor to appear and be heard, shall operate in every other State. The same paper states that the Hon. W. T. Dortch is giving this matter his earnest consideration, and that at the next session of our General Assembly he will introduce and advocate the enactment of a bill affording such relief. What its features will be, (says the Messenger,) we are not prepared to say, but, coming from so experienced and well informed a jurist as Mr. Dortch is on all hands recognized to be, we feel confident that it will be liberal, feasible and inexpensive.

"Besides, it is of importance to remember that vast sums of money may be drawn from the Treasury and paid to disloyal claimants under the law as it now stands, if its execution is placed in the hands of the Democratic party. There must, under existing law, be a finding in favor of the claimant's loyalty, but suppose you appoint a Southern Claims' Commission, under the control of Southern Confederate Democrats, and leave to them the decision of the question of loyalty; in that case how many claims will be rejected for disloyalty?"

Thus asks the Radical Secretary of War, in the speech to which we have elsewhere referred. To which we answer that a Democratic Congress has not paid one dishonest Southern claim, where a Radical House paid hundreds upon hundreds, in order to build up the Republican party in the South. We know of men who were able to establish their "loyalty" before a Radical Southern Claims Commission, who were blatant fire-eaters before the war and terrible (bomb-proof) fellows for devouring Yankees all through the war. Their "loyalty" consisted in the fact that they were ready to sell their souls and bodies to the Radical party for mess of pottage.

Behold two logical sequences! Josiah Turner has denounced the Radical party, in the past, as the very quintessence of abominations. The Radical party, by endorsing Josiah Turner, have admitted the truth of all he said about them. Again: Josiah Turner has stigmatized the Radical party as foul and corrupt. By seeking and accepting an endorsement at their hands, he is "tarred with the same stick." For how can a man touch pitch and not be defiled? Q. E. D.

J. E. Shepherd, Esq., Chairman of the Central Executive Committee of the First Congressional District, suggests to the Democracy of the District the organization of Yeates Campaign clubs in every township. The recommendation is an excellent one, and we hope that the example will be followed in the other Districts. Unity and organization are all that are necessary to give us brilliant victory in November.

The Elizabeth City Economist says that Kimpton, the Radical rogue whom the Radical Governor of Massachusetts recently refused to deliver up upon the requisition of Gov. Hampton, kept a store in that place a few years ago. The people there, however, didn't "set a stord" by him.

What is the matter with Tourgee? Isn't he acceptable to the Radicals of the Fifth District? We observe that a Convention of the party, to nominate a candidate for Congress, has been called to meet in Graham on the 18th.

Here is how the endorsement of Josiah Turner is received by the New North State, Radical, of Greensboro:

"The Republicans of the 4th Congressional District endorse Jo. Turner for Congress. Well—yes—no—but—yes; well, yes, we have no doubt but that we—but—yes, now and then, you see it will do."

VEGETINE.

Cured Her.

BELLEVUE, KY.

DR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I must state that your Vegetine deserves to be called a valuable blood purifier, renovator and invigorator of the whole system. My wife suffered for a length of time with a Scrofula Sore on the leg. She took several bottles of Vegetine. The results were surprising; it cured her, while all the former remedies failed to give satisfaction.

PURIFIES THE BLOOD.

BOSTON, MASS., Jan. 13, 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir,—I have been using Vegetine for some time with the greatest satisfaction, and can highly recommend it as a great cleanser and purifier of the blood

J. L. HANAFORD,
Pastor of Egleston-square M. E. Church.

Nervousness, and all derangements of the nervous system, are usually connected with a diseased condition of the blood. Debility is a frequent accompaniment. The first thing to be done is to improve the condition of the blood. This is accomplished by taking Vegetine. It is a nerve medicine, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

WILL CURE RHEUMATISM.

CINCINNATI, April 9, 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I have used your medicine, the Vegetine, for Rheumatism with great success, and believe it to be the best medicine for that complaint that there is. I also know it is a good blood purifier, and at the present time am using it as the best spring medicine that I know of. I take great pleasure in recommending the Vegetine to my friends.

H. MUND, Charles Street.

Thousands will bear testimony (and do it voluntarily), that Vegetine is the best medical compound yet placed before the public for renovating and purifying the blood, eradicating all humors, impurities, or poisonous secretions from the system, invigorating and strengthening the system debilitated by disease; in fact, it is, as many have called it, "The Great Health Restorer."

Vegetine

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

ASHLEY, ILL., Jan. 12, 1878.

Dear Sir,—I have been using Vegetine for Dyspepsia, and find more relief from it than all the other medicines I ever used. There is nothing like it for Dyspepsia.

MRS. M. E. FOWLKS.

I am personally acquainted with Mrs. Fowlks, and can certify that the above statement is true.

Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.

CIRCULAR SAW MILL. LEVER FEED CUTTER.

Hege's Improved Circular Saw Mill, is no new & dnuntried saw mill, but is one that is well and favorably known in many sections, and wherever it is introduced it is fast superceding all others. It is simple in construction, yet reliable in operation, and is soid for less than any other first class saw mill. Send for descriptive circular

Lever Feed Cutter,

Is something entirely new and novel in the feed cutter line. With this cutter the feed is cut off diagonally, instead of square across, as is the case with all other cutters, at the same time our cutter has a draw cut, acting exactly on the same principle that a knife is used in cutting off a stick, consequently with our Diagonal Feed Cutter we can cut more feed with less labor in a given time than any other cutter costing twice as much.

Price reduced to $8.00. Send for circular. Liberal discount to agents. No goods consigned. Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.

Very Neat.

That admirable paper, the Tarboro Southerner, gets off the following, apropos the Congressional campaign:

There is a tale you oft have learned,
About ambition's victim.
Jo Turner better counsel spurned—
Jo Davis 'twas that whip't him.

Going North.

Mrs. M. A. Hardie, milliner, leaves for New York this morning, for her fall supplies. Mrs. Hardie's increasing business has required the enlargement of her store, which is very neat and attractive. She proposes to buy a large and handsome stock to meet the demands of her customers. She will let the readers of the News hear from her when she returns.

D. T. Johnson, Esq.

Special attention is called to the advertisement of this favorably known merchant, transacting a large and successful grocery business, on Wilmington street. Capt. Sam P. Horton will arrive in Raleigh on Monday next, and will occupy his office over Cook & Wainwright's store.

A Monster Eel.

Yesterday the mill of Gattis, Jones & Ellis stopped suddenly, the turbine wheel, which is a 30-horse power, becoming choked. The miller thought that something had come in through the water house into the wheel. The water was drawn off and the cause of the stoppage found. It was an immense eel, over four feet long and six inches in diameter, which had passed through and become so tightly wedged in the wheel that the flesh had to be cut out.

The following abstract of listed taxables was yesterday received by the State Auditor:

Hertford county, by H. C. Sharp, Register of Deeds, reports:

Going to the Aid of the Fever Sufferers.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. R. P. Waring, Jr., formerly a citizen of Memphis but who has been living here for a year past, leaves to-night for that stricken city to offer his services in behalf of the sufferers by the yellow fever, as nurse or otherwise. Mr. Waring has had considerable experience as nurse of fever patients, and his services in this behalf will doubtless be eagerly accepted. He proposes remaining in Memphis and after the scourge quits the city will endeavor to get into business there.

For the Sufferers.

Halifax town and vicinity sent Gov. Vance $70, for the relief of the yellow fever sufferers. It was promptly forwarded to the Howard Association, at Memphis.

Oxford forwarded, through Captain Wm. Biggs, and Grandy & Bro., $66, to Major Seaton Gales, for the sufferers; $53.50 was contributed by citizens, and $12.50 by Oxford Lodge, No. 103, I. O. O. F. The money on yesterday was forwarded by Major Gales per express the $53.50 to the Howard Association of Memphis, and the $12.50 to Odd Fellows' Relief Association, of Memphis.

The Odd Fellows are ever with the foremost in good works, and the efforts of the Oxford Lodge in this direction are earnest and untiring.

The mite chest at the postoffice furnished $5 yesterday for relief.

Owing to the rainy weather the results of the day's work, which that clever barber Otey, gave for the relief of the sufferers, were small, only $6 being sent in. But his kindness will be remembered.

There was a grand total of $196.50, received from all sources, sent from the express office yesterday.

The call for another festival, at the capitol or elsewhere, is renewed. Let it be held at once. A week's preparation will be ample. Do not let the good work cease. There is no cessation of the suffering or decrease of the need of funds for the afflicted ones.

State Fair Items.

A good deal of interest is expressed in the Sales' Day of the coming Fair. This day (Saturday) will be devoted in part, to the sale of such articles as exhibitors may desire to dispose of. It is hoped it may become a permanent feature in the annual Fairs.

Major W. B. Lynch, of Mabanesville, has informed the Secretary, that he enters for sale that day his fine stallion, "Charlie Morgan," now five years old. He has taken the first premiums for three years.

Mr. A. M. Long, of Swannanoa; Buncombe county, will have a fine lot of poultry on exhibition and for sale, chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys, etc. He also offers some genuine shepherd dogs.

Messrs. Warde & Brother will have at the Fair a great curiosity, in the shape of the "Eight Footed Horse." They come many hundreds of miles with this singular freak of nature.

Donations pour in rapidly and will be acknowledged as fast as the Secretary can dispose of accumulating work.

To The Citizens of Raleigh.

It having been extensively reported that the Calliopean Minstrels were at no expense in giving the entertainment Tuesday night, for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers, it is no more than justice to the company to make the following exhibit:

Total cash receipts,		$ 105 00
EXPENSES:
Hall rent,	$ 12 00
Printing,	12 00
Properties necessary for the show,	4 50
Chair covers,	3 50
Prof. Baker,	10 00	—42 00
Net receipts,		$ 63 00

Twenty per cent of the net receipts of all shows goes into the Company's money, to keep up the organization, which, on this occasion amounted to $ 12 60

Leaving a net balance of 50 40

Yesterday Mr. W. G. Thomas forwarded by express to the President of the Howard Association at Vicksburg the sum of $50.

Since settling all the above bills we have been called upon to pay the stage help in the hall, so it will be seen that the bad weather and nothing donated to us make our assistance less than otherwise.

Respectfully,
H. W. ROBERTS,
Manager.

Heller Brothers, No. 31, Fayetteville street, one of the largest boot and shoe establishments in the city, are opening a splendid stock of ladies' and gents' fine boots and shoes, and a large variety of boys' and girls' shoes. The Messrs. Heller are popular, reliable and successful business men. They deal only in first class goods.

State Agricultural Society.

The Executive Committee of the N. C. Agricultural Society met at the Yarborough House on Thursday evening, General R. F. Hoke in the chair, C. B. Denson, Secretary.

The subject of providing music for the Fair was taken up, and various propositions considered. The offer of the Newbern Band was accepted. The band consists of fourteen members, and is one of the finest in the State.

Arrangements were made for the thorough canvassing of the country contiguous to railroad stations.

The Secretary presented a large number of letters from various public spirited firms, making donations to the society, for the Supplementary Premium List.

The handsome posters, executed by Russell Morgan & Co., Cincinnati, were received and approved.

After some discussion, on motion of Dr. Jas. McKee, it was resolved:—

"That the rules of the American Jockey Club and the rules of the National Trotting Asssociation be and are hereby adopted, to govern all races on the track of this society, to be hereafter run."

The resolution was ordered to be published in the Supplementary Premium List, with the additional races.

A communication was received and properly disposed of, from J. L. Terrell, of Swain county, in charge of a band of Cherokee Indians, who desire to visit the Fair.

After reviewing many details, the committee adjourned at a late hour.

I find the combination in Prime Silver Ware immovable in prices, still I am watching some parties from whose forced sales I will get a fine stock very low. Spoons and Forks cannot be had below full prices and only our last splendid purchase enables us to sell low. New Store--New Goods.

Having opened a grocery and general merchandise store in the Adams building, No. 2 Martin street, I would announce to my old customers and the public generally, that I shall keep in stock a large and varied selection of dry goods, groceries, boots, shoes, &c., &c. Buying at cash prices, as I do, I can at all times compete with the market and afford my customers all the advantages offered to the trade. I shall be glad to give strict personal attention to all business in my line. W. E. Dupree, Raleigh, N. C., Martin street, Adams building. *

The Standard of Excellence.

Bread is the staff of life, and is used in every household. Yet how few have the judgment to make such a selection of flour as will make bread white, pure, tempting. Cheapness in this staple food is nearly always coupled with impurity, and brands without name or reputation are passed off upon the unsuspecting as of superior quality. The idea in purchasing this article is to get it at a place where its quality is guaranteed. This is done, and it may be had in any quantity at the store of W. H. Dodd, corner Wilmington and Martin streets. *

Country and City.

Are alike accommodated at the well conducted and fancy stocked store of J. P. Pritchard, at the corner of Salisbury and Hillsboro streets. The best family groceries are there to be found at low prices. Satisfaction is sure to attend purchases at this fine grocery establishment. *

The Place for Farmers.

This is unquestionably at the Cotton and Commission house of Cooke & Wainwright, who offer to agriculturists great advantages in the way of bargains, and who are at all times prepared to show all possible favors to customers. Persons who have cotton to dispose of will do well to remember this fine house. *

Beauty and Comfort.

These two desirables are both found by purchasers of Levy's Champion Improved Yoke Shirts, whose fit is guaranteed. Entire satisfaction is always given purchasers. The workmanship and finish are both of the finest. The manufactory is home enterprise. *

Encouragement for the Feeble.

So long as the failing embers of vitality are capable of being re-kindled into a warm and genial glow, just so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despond, but derive encouragement from this and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in renewing the dilapidated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hope in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and of color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored, the blood fertilized and sustenance afforded to each life sustaining organ by the Bitters, which is inoffensive even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition, and thoroughly safe. JONES' BAKING POWDER

FOR SALE BY ALL GROCERS.

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial trial. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful experiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding it is the perfection of science, and is recommended by the leading Chemists in the United States, whose certificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money to every consumer. It stands Unrivaled; we challenge the world to produce better pureand more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A BARREL OF FLOUR MAKES ABOUT 40 POUNDS MORE BREAD
IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER.
IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY.
IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME.
YOUR BREAD WILL NEVER BE SOUR.
YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST.
YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER.
YOUR HEALTH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterated and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article throughout the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and is a credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."
